Under the madras Govt order periods of absence of Officers on acct of Camps of Exercise or Rifle meetings are treated as a Special Kind of Casual leave, not counted against the Casual leave for which Officers are ordinarily eligible. A similar Concession is allowed in Madras when Officers are detained in plague Camps or are prevented from attending office owing to some infectious disease in their household The question of extending this Concession to the mysore Govt Servants was recently settled & the decision was that such Concession ~~Con~~ should not be shown. The Case of enforced absence on acct of plague rules & other similar circs is a

Stronger one than that of attending Camps of Exercise or Rifle meetings & a concession not shown to the former Can not be allowed to the latter Case. At the Same time there is no financial Objection to permit Staff Officers who are Volunteers from attending Camps of Exercise & Rifle meetings & treating the periods of absence as Some kind of leave under the rules to which they are eligible and which they Choose to take. If there is no order authorising Heads of Depts & Offices to allow their Volunteer Subordinates to attend Camps of Exercise and Rifle meetings & treat the periods of absence as Some kind of leave admissible to them one may now be passed. All that Can reasonably be asked for is that Volunteers Shd be given facilities to attend to their military duties & it Seems to be an adequate provision if Whenever they leave to attend to such duties

They are given permission to absent themselves & their absence is treated as some kind of leave under the rules. The grant of a special kind of leave on full pay for attending to such duties, in addition to the kinds of leave admissible under the Leave Regulations is inconvenient & may entail additional expenditure & Can not therefore be recommended financially.

I should like to have an idea on the basis of actual facts & figures of the probable number of days for which an officer may have to be absent from duty in the course of a year for the purposes in question. The number of officers affected is small and the number of days also probably small. It is important that in a matter like this in which the Govt of India take warm interest we should not appear to be arguing in a haggling spirit.

It will be seen from the three collections put up that Volunteers will have to attend Camps of Exercise, ordinarily twice a year and that for an aggregate period of not less than two weeks (for a whole year) [In 1907 the S.I.R.A meeting alone extended over a week]; and that requisitions have been received till now in the case of the following Officials:

1) Mr. J.G. Tait
2) — G. Hume Wright
3) — H.P. Gibbs
4) — A.M. Staggs (Official, Kadur dist)
5) — J.E. Lewis (Police Supt. Hassan dist)

As to the exact number of Officers of the Mysore Govt., who are Volunteers, no information is available in the Branch

The remarks of the Financial Undersecretary seem to be quite relevant, and I cannot understand why they should be stigmatised as 'apparently frivolous'.

The proposal to give them Casual leave without any limit for such purpose is virtually equivalent to treating them as being on deputation. During the period of absence. I am not sure that even in British India, the ~~rule of~~ same rule is uniformly applied. It seems to be more in consonance ~~to~~ with principle to regard these men as absent 'on other duty', if such a practice generally obtains in British India. Unless on account of the terms of the Residency letter, it is considered essential that we should pass ~~(illegible)~~ the proposed rule, I would ask for information as to the practice obtaining in other provinces
